About the Training Program

SB 1087 Instructor Training & SB 1343 Information

In 2015, SB 1087 created additional annual supervisor harassment prevention training requirements for farm labor contractors, as well as requirements to provide day-of-hire training for non-supervisory employees. As currently required under FLC licensing regulations, FLCs or their appropriate designated person may conduct the additional training. For 2019, AB 1343 expands the every-two years AB 1825 supervisor harassment prevention training requirements fromemployers with 50 or more employees to five (5) or more employees, and will also require one-hour of training for all non-supervisory employees. AB 1343 and SB 1087 have differing requirements as to the qualifications for trainers on harassment prevention.

This training will clarify new AB 1343 harassment prevention training requirements and qualification requirements of trainers. For FLCs or their designated representatives, this training will provide SB 1087 harassment prevention trainer certification.
